My dear Tim,

Very many thanks for your letter, which I was pleased to receive. I am simply delighted to think that our friendship is still going to continue, and I hope we shall have very many happy times together.

It was good of you to spare a few minutes to write to me on Sunday, as I know how busy you must have been, and I do appreciate it Tim. It is Morris' last Sunday next week.

Our new minister, who is coming in September, the one from Headingly College, is named "Rees". Dad had a letter from him, and I understand he lives in Cardiff.

I think Margaret and I are going to the Gaiety to see "How Green was my Valley", as it is supposed to be such a good film.

On Wednesday, I am going with the Plant Lane League to Hartley College, where some of them are playing in a Tennis Tournament. Needless to say, I am not playing tennis.

It would certainly have been lovely if we could have had our full fortnight's holiday together Tim, but still it was grand to have had a week, wasn't it.

I am so glad you like Morn and Dad, as I am sure they will always make you very welcome. Morn suggested that on Saturday, we may as well come back home to tea, as it would be better than having to get it out somewhere. Perhaps you would like me to show you where Plate Church is, as it would be a nice walk.

a friend of mine - Daisy Harding - from Church, has gone to Shelling Haven for this week, so I suppose she will have a great time if the weather improves. She has joined up in the NAAFI's, and is stationed in Gloucester at present.

I shall be looking forward
to seeing you again on Saturday,
at 3 o'clock.

Kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,

J. Green.
