

5

Rev. James Mills,

22, Maitland Street,
Hempshaw Lane,
Stockport,
Ches.

"Scale",
2, Cranbourne Road,
Charlton. cum. Hardy, Manchester, 21.

15th Sept., 1942.

My dear Jim,

It was simply wonderful to receive your letter this morning.

I am so happy to think that we have so much in common. I do love you with all my heart Jim, and I am so delighted to know that you feel the same towards me.

I am always thinking about you, and I am so proud to think you are doing such a great work, which is the greatest thing in life.

This weekend will for ever live in my memory, dear.

I enjoyed every minute of it.

It was funny you should mention hymn 443, as I was thinking about that on Sunday. I remember once learning all the words off by heart. It is such a beautiful hymn, and can express one's feelings far better than words could ever do.

I am sure we shall have such wonderful times together, Tim.

It seems so strange that we should live so near, and yet have to meet so far away as Scotland, but I am sure there must be some divine purpose behind it all.

Do let me know what size garters you want. They have them in 26" - 30" length.

I called in to-day for your book, but it hadn't come in, so I will go again later in the week.

We had a grand swim yesterday, although it was a bit cold on first getting in.

I am so much looking forward to seeing you on Saturday.

By the way, if you have any good ideas as to how we can entertain our guests the following Saturday. please let me know, as I am trying to plan my programme.

I do love you more than anything else Tim; do believe this, from the bottom of my heart.

all my good wishes,

Yours for always,

Doreen.

