My dear Jim,

I really must write and thank you very much for the wonderful time we have had together this weekend. I have enjoyed every moment of it.

You will be glad to know that I caught the eighty bus all right, and got home about 10-30.

Don't bother to get your caps yet, as Dad says you can have his coupons and I will try and see whether Brown Bros. have any.

I will call in for the book
to-morrow.

I am writing this in a hurry before my breakfast, so I haven't very much time.

All my love, Tim.

Yours,
